Student Voice Elected Positions 2022/23

FAQ

Q. Can I stand for more than one position?

A. Yes except The Chair and Vice Chair of Student Voice who may only hold one Officer role at Student Voice so the same person may not hold the role of both Chair and Vice Chair. The Chair and Vice Chair can be representatives on other committees.

Q. What are the eligibility requirements of standing for a position?

A. You must be a current member of Student Voice. You must remain a member for the entirety of the term of office – i.e. be a continuing GCU student for 2022/23. So if you are graduating this year (even if returning to do a PGT course in the autumn) or not returning to GCU next year, unfortunately you cannot stand for the elections. Other eligibility requirements are outlined on the grid above.

Q. What are the terms of office for the positions?

A. Term of office will begin at the start of Trimester 3 2022 and finish at the end of Trimester 2 2023 exam diet.

Q. What happens if I am not a member of Student Voice next year?

A. Members who are elected as student representative to the university committees above will automatically gain membership to Student Voice for the term they are Student Representatives. In this instance, it would be for the 2022/23 academic year.

Q. Can Full Time Officers stand for a position on Senate?

A. Yes. As a member of Student Voice, FTOs may stand for Senate positions.

Q. I am currently a Representation Officer, can I stand for an Open Place on the Equality and Diversity committee.

A. Yes. Do remember if you will be continuing as a Representation Officer next year, you will automatically be a member of the committee though.

Q. I am graduating this year but will be returning to do my post-grad at GCU. Can I run for a position?

A. As you will not be officially enrolled between your graduation and enrolment in the PGT course, you cannot hold an Officer or representative role. However, nominations for the open places on Student Voice and PGT Rep for each of the schools takes place at the beginning of each academic year. You are encouraged to stand for one of these. Any unfilled vacancies from this election will be run again at Student Voice 1 of the new academic year.
