

---

ETHICAL AND ENVIROMENTAL COMMITTEE PLAN OF WORK

---

By Moses Apiliga, VP GSBS

GCU Students' Association – Campaign Planning Chart

Objective	Desired outcome	Actions to achieve outcome	Resources required	Timescale	Who is responsible?
To update our Sustainability and Fairtrade Policy	To sustain and further drive our commitment to sustainability in our operations	Update policies  Get it approved by Student Voice (our democratic body)	Best practice policies from other SA/SUs and NUS  Time to research and draft  Ability (i.e. knowledge) to answer and advocate for updated policy at Student Voice	Trimester A	Moses Apiliga, VP GSBS  Rachel Simpson, President  Caitlin Reid, Ethical and Environmental Officer
To further develop our Ethical and Environmental community	Increased number of students attending meetings; increased number of posting on Facebook by GCU community	Promote E & E meetings as a place to propose and discuss E & E policy and practice  Promote and moderate Facebook group as a welcoming community	Social media  Website group  Face to face (coffee with an officer)	Trimester A and B	Moses Apiliga, VP GSBS  Caitlin Reid, Ethical and Environmental Officer
Promote eco-friendly alternatives to disposable takeaways in campus catering outlets	Increase access to alternatives to disposable takeaway containers	Survey on the usage of disposable takeaway containers	Online survey package  Input from E & E committee on the topic/questions  Time and ability to create survey  Facebook and all student email to promote survey	Trimester B	Moses Apiliga, VP GSBS  Caitlin Reid, Ethical and Environmental Officer  Sara MacLean, Student Voice Team Leader
		Analysis of survey	Completed surveys  Excel	Trimester B	Sara MacLean, Student Voice Team Leader

GCU Students’ Association – Campaign Planning Chart

			Time and ability to analyse survey
		Publishing survey results and use them to promote change at GCU	Website  Meeting with sustainability lead in the university	Trimester B	Moses Apiliga, VP GSBS  Sara MacLean, Student Voice Team Leader